INSPIRED BY GIPPSLAND

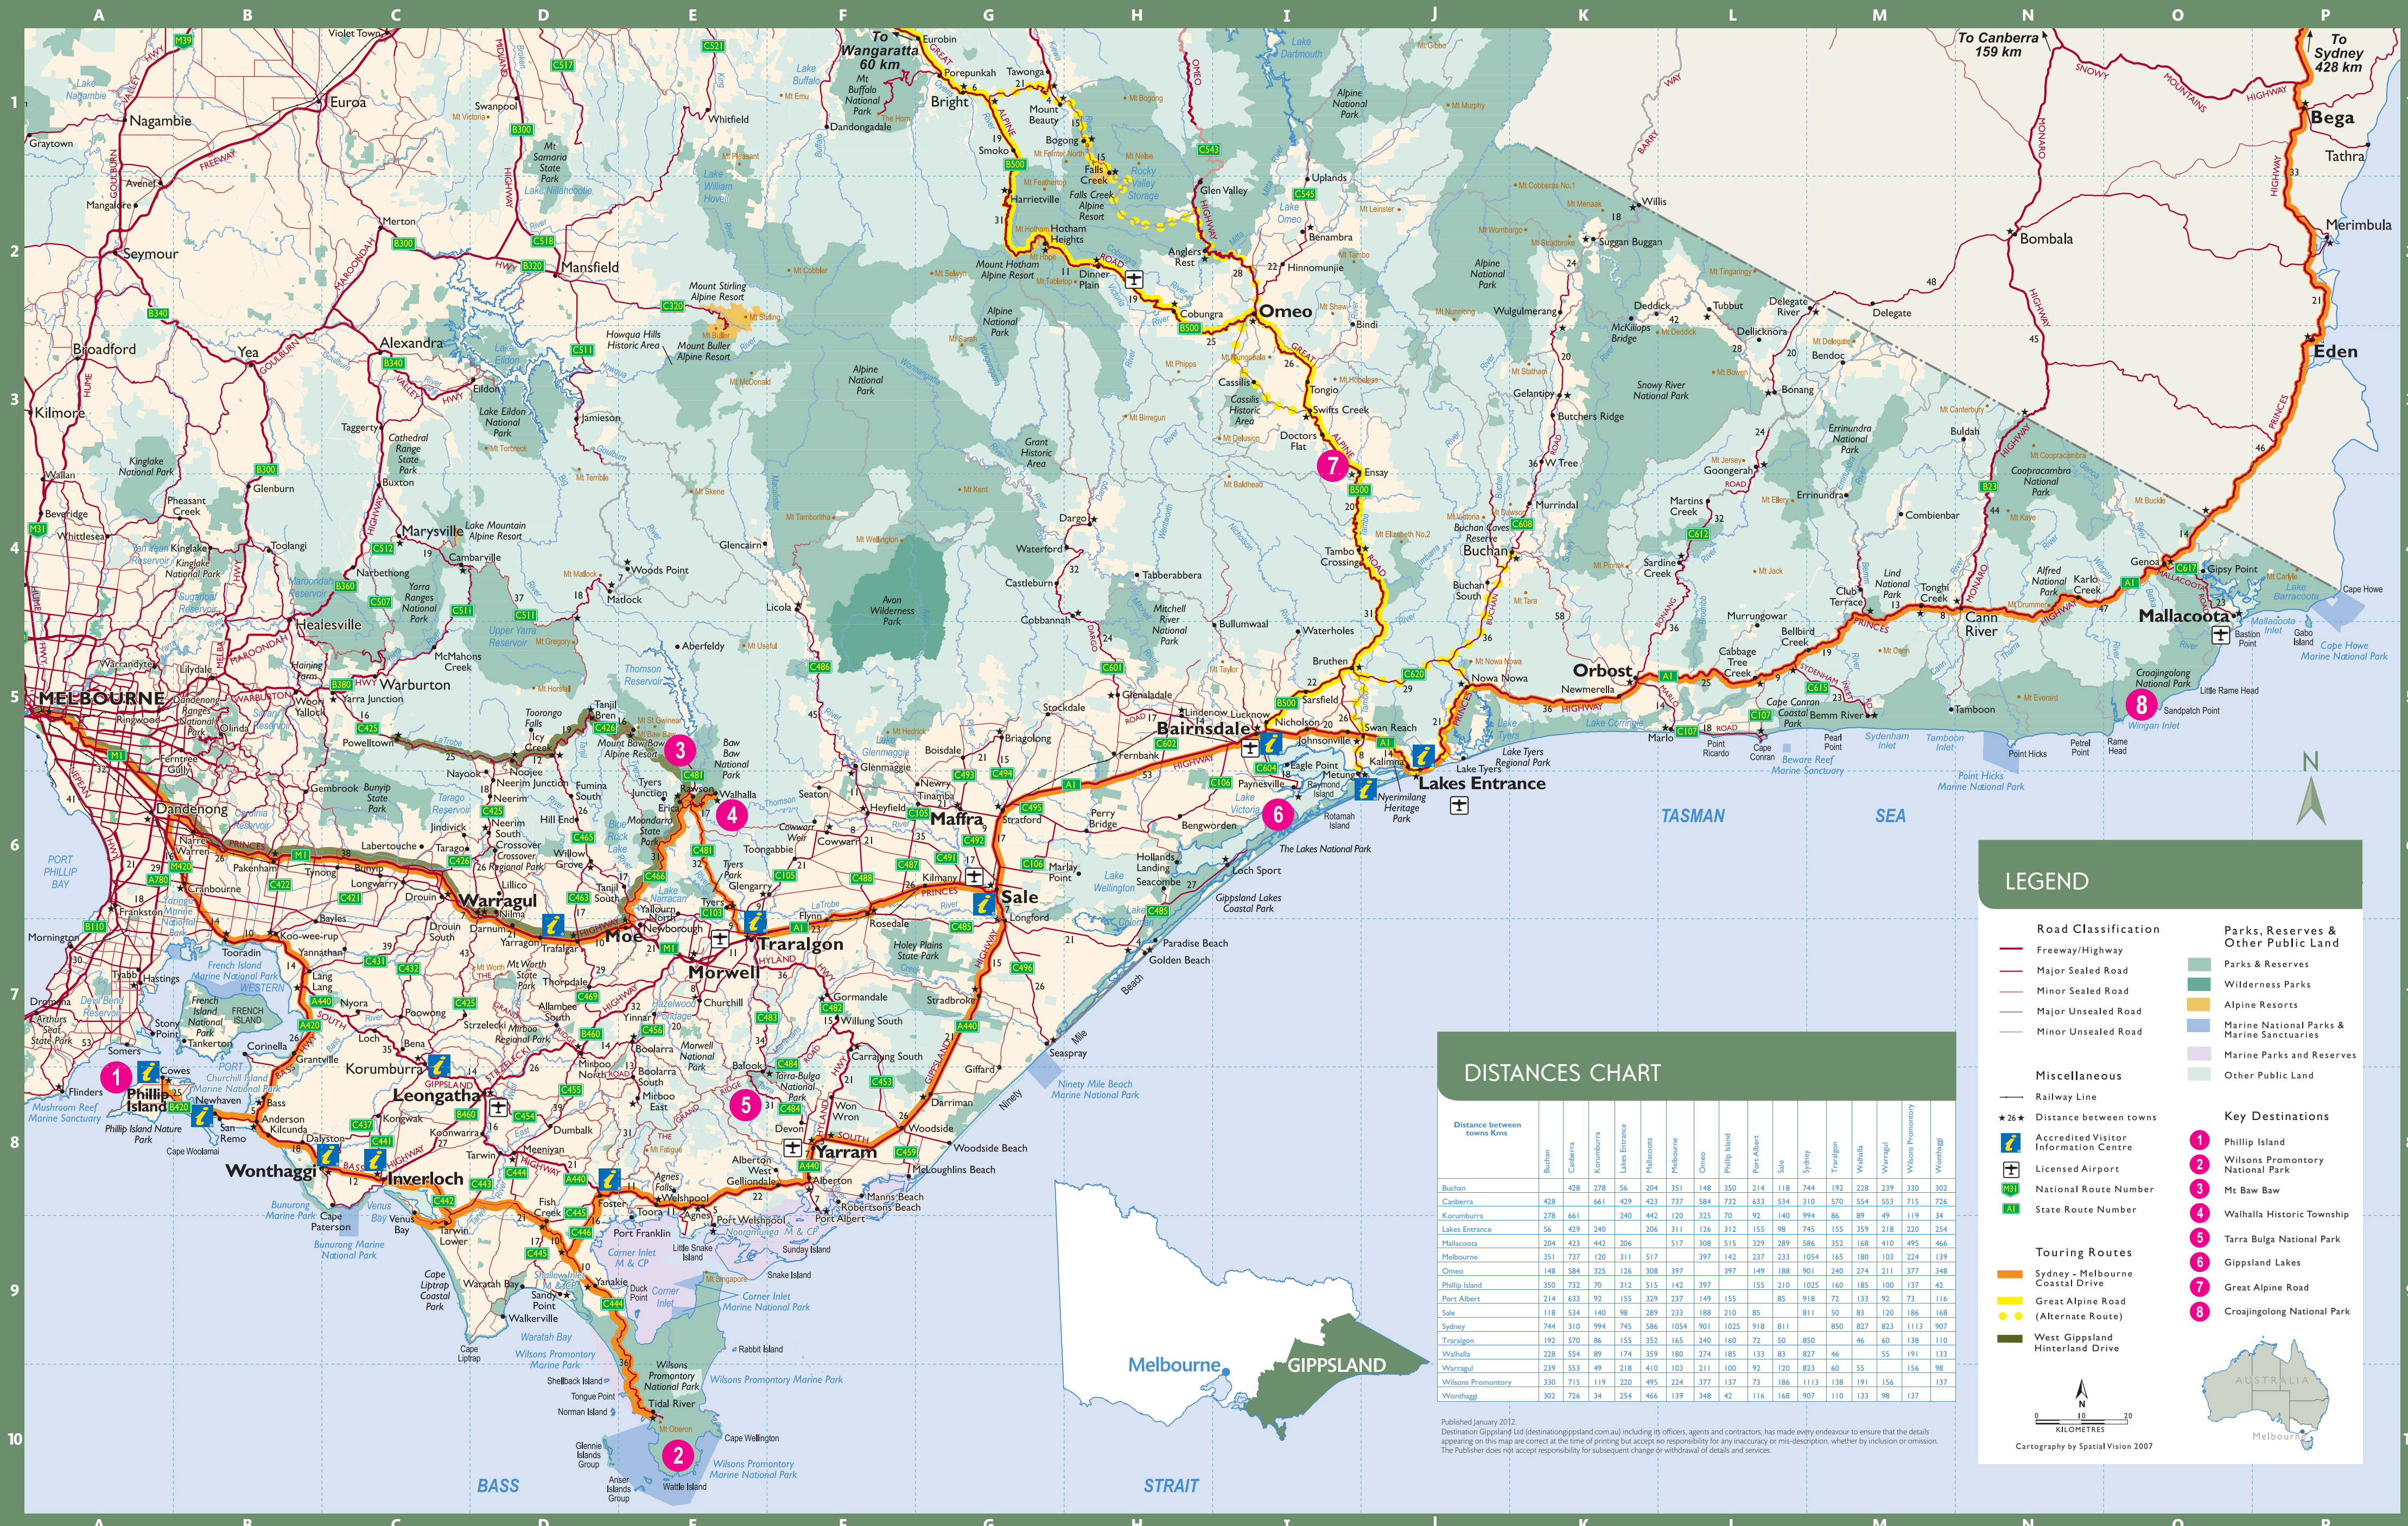

Be inspired by Gippsland's solitary beauty, from rugged coastlines and unspoilt beaches to forests of ferns and Mountain Ash – the region boasts breathtaking vistas at every turn.

Stretching from Melbourne's eastern fringe to the New South Wales border, the region boasts some of the most stunning national parks in the state. Some of the most spectacular include Wilsons Promontory at the southernmost tip of the Australian mainland, Victoria's largest coastal wilderness area Croajingolong National Park – a World Biosphere Reserve of more than 100km – and the Gippsland Lakes, Australia's biggest and most beautiful expanse of inland waterways.

Gippsland – it's easy to slip into the rhythm of life here. Stroll along the water's edge, be captivated by breathtaking waterfalls, indulge in gourmet delights, be amazed by the charming wildlife and natural scenic beauty. View with awe the amazing artistic talents and take home a plenitude of wonderful memories of a region overflowing with new adventures to discover. So come prepared to see, do, discover and enjoy – be inspired by Gippsland.
